

KICK-OFF MEETING, 19-20 NOVEMBER 2025

EQulP Kicks Off at UVSQ

On 19-20 November 2025, the University of Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines (UVSQ) hosted the Kick-Off Meeting for the EQulP project as its coordinator. EQulP is a strategic initiative aimed at enhancing the quality and effectiveness of international collaborations in higher education.

The project's key objectives include:

- » Establishing harmonized frameworks for evaluating international agreements
- » Developing innovative digital tools to improve student and staff mobility outcomes
- » Strengthening partnerships among European higher education institutions

UVSQ's International Relations and Projects Department brought together seven European partner universities for this hybrid launch event:

- » University of Padua (Italy)
- » University of Porto (Portugal)
- » Western Norway University of Applied Sciences (Norway)
- » HAN University of Applied Sciences (Netherlands)
- » Ghent University (Belgium)
- » European University Foundation (Luxembourg)

» Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (Greece)
